Held at Jaypee University of Information Technology, Solan

Date: 14 September 2022

Reported By: Muskaan, General Secretary, Synapse

A graceful event was organised at Jaypee University of Information Technology on the occasion of Hindi-Divas, celebrated worldwide on September 14 to embrace this beautiful language. This event was organised by Synapse Club, Department of Biotechnology and Bioinformatics in collaboration with the literary and debating club, JYC.

This event began with the hosting by Vinamrata and Aakanksha, who thoroughly welcomed all the dignitaries present there.

The lamp Lighting was done by Honourable VC Dr Rajendra Kumar Sharma, Registrar and Dean of Students Maj Gen (Retd.) Rakesh Bassi, The head of the department Dr Sudhir Kumar, The faculty coordinators of synapse Dr Tiratha Raj Singh and Dr Hemant Sood and the Faculty Treasurer of the club Dr Saurabh Bansal which was accompanied by Saraswati Vandana. The event officially embarked on.

Then, honourable VC Dr Rajendra Kumar Sharma graced the stage with his insightful words describing the importance of the Hindi language. Then, Registrar and Dean of Students Maj. Gen. (Retd.) Rakesh Bassi was welcomed on the stage to share a few words of wisdom. He thoroughly put light on how the usage of English has affected the importance of Hindi in our day-to-day life. Following this, the Head of the Department Dr Sudhir Syal was invited on the stage where he started on a very humorous note describing there are several other languages in a diverse country like India but Hindi and English are the two majorly accepted languages.

Vinamrata and Aakanksha invited Dr Hemant Sood, Dr Tirath Raj Singh and Dr Rakesh Bajaj to judge this event.

Then, the Faculty Coordinator of JYC Dr Amit Srivastava was welcomed on stage and described how different and vast Hindi is. He said and described that Hindi is a scientific language.

Then the declamation competition was declared open on the topic of "समकालीन परिस्थितियों में पश्चिमीकरण के अत्याधिक प्रभाव से हिंदी भाषा की अहमियत कम हुई है..!!" where a total of 5 students participated out of which Aditya Sharma from 3rd year and Bhumika Gupta from 1st year got 1st and 2nd prize respectively.

Beautiful poems were recited by Aduviti and Kritin which were enjoyed by everyone.

After the declamation round, the hall was opened for a lively discussion in the form of a debate on the very same topic. Where Vatsal Singh got 1st Prize when he was opposing the topic with his day-to-day facts. Anushree bagged the 2nd prize for supporting the motion. Around 100 people were present there in the hall to witness this lively conversation.

Out of all Siddharth got a special mention and a consolation prize from the judges for his presence of mind and responses during the debate.

Following this Shwetabh and Vipasha recited their beautiful self-owned poetries. Dr Hemant Sood, Faculty coordinator of Synapse and Judge for this event was invited on stage to present her views and declare the results of this event. Where she invited VC Dr Rajender Kumar Sharma to felicitate the winners of both the competitions and the participants of the poetry recitation. All the winners were felicitated with cash prizes as a token of appreciation whereas the rest of the participants were acknowledged with participation certificates.

Then Dr Tirath Raj Singh was invited on stage, he presented his beautifully written self-owned poetries that had enough humour to make everyone laugh.

The event ended with a vote of thanks by Ragini Mishra, the President of Synapse Club who discussed the thought behind conducting this event and beautifully thanked one and all present in the hall who came to attend the event.

Special Thanks to the team synapse who warmly handled all the responsibilities for the event.

Jyotika Gupta, Himanshu Kumar and Tulika Goswami along with the arts and literary team handled all the decorations.

Nikunj Sharma, Chirag Abrol and Shikhu along with the event and technical team ensured the smooth run of the event and maintained all the resources required throughout the event.

Parul Katoch, Pushpit Thakur along with Ishita ensured that there were not any indisciplinary acts during the event.
